Celebration
of 190th Anniversary

The First Congregational Church
Georgetown, Mass.

September 30th to October 3rd Inclusive

Saturday, September 30, at 7. 30 P. M.

HISTORICAL PANORAMA. A vivid sketch of the church in action; past, present and future. It consists of a prelude, ten main episodes and a postlude illustrated by tableaux or scenes. The Panorama will be presented by a large cast of people under the direction of Mrs. Helen B. Hoyt and her able staff of assistants.

Offering at close to help defray expenses.

Sunday, October 1

COMMEMORATION DAY. Morning worship at 10.30 A. M. Anniversary Sermon by Rev. Henry R. McCartney, Kennebunkport, Maine. At the close of the regular service there will be a roll call of members and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be conducted by Rev. Warren Francis Lowe. Special music by the augmented choir at both the morning and evening services.

BIG COMMUNITY SERVICE at 7 P. M., with address by Rev. William E. Gilroy, Boston, Mass., editor of the "Congregationalist," assisted by several visiting ministers. The following churches have been asked to unite with us: First Congregational Church of Rowley; Congregational Church, South Byfield; First Baptist, Georgetown; All Saints Episcopal, Georgetown. Special music.

Monday, October 2, at 3.30 P. M.

CHILDREN'S CELEBRATION. All children in the Cradle Roll, Primary and Junior Departments are invited. Splendid program and refreshments in charge of Miss Addie McKinnon and Miss Grace Spofford.

Monday Evening at 7.45

A SPLENDID CANTATA entitled "The Rose Maiden" will be given by a large chorus choir under the direction of Miss Bessie Cleveland, Danvers, Mass., formerly organist and choir director of the Peabody Memorial Church. Mrs. Ruth Brown at the piano. Soloists: Mrs. Elizabeth M. Daniels, soprano; Miss Evelyn G. Martin, alto; George W. Hurn, tenor; Edward L. Gerry, bass.

Offering to help defray expenses.

Tuesday, October 3

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET in the church vestry at 6.30 P. M. Tickets $1.00 per plate. Tickets limited, must be purchased on or before October 1st. Program in the church auditorium following banquet, when former pastors and other visitors will speak.

Everybody cordially invited to attend these services.

EXHIBIT of articles of historic interest at the Peabody Library in charge of Miss Ellen Tyler. Hours for inspection, Saturday 3-5 P. M., Monday 3-5 P. M., Tuesday 2-4.30 P. M.

Entertainment can be had at a nominal cost. Those wishing accommodation apply to registrar in church vestry.

Though we hope that all the exercises in connection with the anniversary will be availed of for the welcoming of old friends and the exchange of happy greetings, the banquet will undoubtedly offer the most ample opportunity for the display of the genuine "Old Home" spirit.
